

STARS

This is contributed by a faithful believer and close friend, Brice Burtch, who has a great sense of humor. Brice was a deacon at the Preston City Bible Church when I taught the book of Revelation. The “stars” reference is found in Revelation 1:16, 20 and refers to pastors. Brice came up with this list so enjoy and have fun.

1. A doctrinal disagreement between two pastors is called “Star-wars”.
2. A pastor-teacher’s salary is “Star-vation”.
3. A pastor-teacher’s vacation is “Star-trek”.
4. A pastor-teacher’s kid is a “Star-let”.
5. Two pastors attending a military change of command are “Stars and Stripes”
6. A star struck young girl who worships her pastor-teacher rather than Christ is a “Star-gazer”.
7. One having been evangelized by a pastor-teacher is a “Star-fish”
8. An overhead projector used by the pastor-teacher is a “Star-light”
9. A pastor having a very low I.Q. is “Star-dom”.
10. The big bird that delivers a baby to a pastor-teacher’s home is a “Stark”
11. A pastor-teacher who has survived twenty five years faithfully teaching Bible doctrine at the same local church without throwing in the towel is a “Superstar”.
12. A group of pastors conducting an ordination are called a “Starboard”
13. A pastor’s conference is an “ALL STAR GAME”

14. A reversionistic pastor is a “Wandering Star”.
15. One that was added by a member of our present Grace Bible Church congregation is:

A pastor who does target practice is a “Shooting Star”.
